

OKLAHOMA REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION

WHAT IS “OKRHA”? OKRHA is a local affiliate of the National Reining Horse Association formed to serve the needs of reining horse enthusiasts in the Oklahoma region. Started in August 2002, we are already over 150 members strong and hosting the Jim Glover Chevrolet Tulsa Reining Classic, one of the largest reining horse competitions in the world its first year!

WHAT DOES OKRHA DO? We put on horse shows, play days and clinics to provide our members with opportunities to compete, improve their skills, meet new people and have fun!

I’M JUST A BEGINNER! So are lots of our members! That’s why we have classes called “Green as Grass Rider” and “Rookie”. Are you a horse trainer that has never shown in NRHA competitions? Give the Limited Open class a try. We are all striving to be better – at many different levels.

HOW DO I START? Contact the National Reining Horse Association at 405-946-7400 or www.NRHA.com to learn about what you need to compete. The NRHA’s Reining 101 Guide is a great source of information. For a calendar of our upcoming events and a list of trainers in your area visit our website at www.OKRHA.com.
