OKYRHA Youth Shine at Speech Contest

Congratulations Emma Holbrook, Ben Wagman, and James Michael Phillips!!!!

Great job representing OKYRHA in the 2011 NRHyA Speech Contest.

Emma Holbrook placed 1st and received a $1,000 scholarship for her community service presentation. Way to go Emma!!!!

Ben Wagman placed 2nd for prepared public speaking. Ben is an excellent public speaker!!!!

James Michael Phillips placed 4th reciting A General from the NRHA handbook. Great job James Michael!!!

The objective of the speech contest is to assist youth in the development of leadership, presentation and communication skills in the NRHyA. This contest gives the participant experience in speaking before a group, formulating clear thoughts and delivering those thoughts to an audience in an effective manner.
